

Choir visit and performance at the V&A Museum

On Saturday May 4th, the choir pupils took part in an extraordinary event at London's V&A Museum to celebrate the music of composer Hector Berlioz. Singing alongside Mezzo-Soprano Rachel Kelly, and conducted by David Lawrence, the pupils performed in their own concert, as well as a joint one with the choirs from Old Ford Primary School, and Culloden Primary School, and then accompanied Rachel in her recital by performing with her, singing the Shepherds Farewell. It was a fantastic experience for all involved and the pupils rose to the occasion performing brilliantly to big audiences throughout the day. Well done everybody!
