

Black History Month Project 2026

Each year, Black History Month provides a fantastic opportunity for us to celebrate the outstanding contributions that people of African and Caribbean descent have made in the UK over many generations.

We are inviting all pupils to participate in a home learning project this October

Project Brief:

Research and create a presentation about an influential black figure of your choice. This could be someone from the past, or somebody who inspires you now. Your presentation could be any of the following:

- A piece of art / sculpture
- Information poster
- A short film
- Musical piece
- Google / powerpoint presentation
- Poem
- Oral history interview with a family member

Deadline: Monday 2nd November 2026

Here are some of the brilliant pieces of work that pupils across the trust created last year:

Edna Adan

Mae Jamison

George Floyd

Black History Month Project 2026

Each year, Black History Month provides a fantastic opportunity for us to celebrate the outstanding contributions that people of African and Caribbean descent have made in the UK over many generations.

We are inviting all pupils to participate in a home learning project this October

Project Brief:

Research and create a presentation about an influential black figure of your choice. This could be someone from the past, or somebody who inspires you now. Your presentation could be any of the following:

- A piece of art / sculpture
- Information poster
- A short film
- Musical piece
- Google / powerpoint presentation
- Poem
- Oral history interview with a family member

Deadline: Monday 2nd November 2026

Here are some of the brilliant pieces of work that pupils across the trust created last year:

Edna Adan

Mae Jamison

George Floyd